DR. MEYER-GERHARD WRITES AN ARTICLE FOR BERLIN PAPER

Convinced That Germany and America Have Misunderstood Each Other

DISCUSSES AMMUNITION

Says Majority of American People Disapprove Furnishing Munitions.

Berlin, June 29, (By Wireless to Sayville)—Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard, the attache of the German colonial office, who was sent from the United States to Berlin by the German ambassador, Count von Bernstorff, to explain the views of the United States regarding the Lusitania case, published an article in Der Tag today on "Germany and America," in which he says his experiences convinced him that the two countries misunderstood each other.

"It is true," says Dr. Meyer-Gernard, "that the American press, with some laudable exceptions, especially the German-American papers, have not succeeded in remaining neutral, but the influence of the press upon public opinion is sometimes greatly over-estimated."

Alluding to the discussion over the ammunition question, Dr. Meyer-Gerhard says:

"Germans often mistake large ammunition orders for filled orders. To a large extent such orders are changing big factories into ammunition works. This is regrettable, but the writer is convinced that large parts of the American people disapprove of it. A popular vote would show a considerable majority against the practice. Germans must discriminate between business men accepting orders and the great mass of the American people.

"Equally there are Americans who condemn violation of Belgian neutrality and the sinking of the Lusitania and are unable to understand the German idea of the real conditions, while Germans are unable to understand how Americans could travel on an ammunition ship. Both peoples are laboring under entirely different opinions. Both have lived hitherto in peace and friendship, and should continue so to live."

In the course of his article, Dr. Meyer-Gerhard spoke of the causes which he said had weakened Germany's former friendly feeling toward America, citing them as what he alluded to as the latter's inclination towards England and munition sales in America.

Different Viewpoints.

Regarding the question of Belgian neutrality and militarism, the writer says the Germans cannot understand the feeling aroused in America over these questions as they know that Belgium surrendered her own neutrality and that militarism is only the German nation in arms for its own defense. The American viewpoint was different, however, and each nation feels itself wrongly treated by the other. The whole matter was only one of misunderstanding, said Dr. Meyer-Gerhard, which can also arise between friends. No sensible man, he said, will light-heartedly throw away a friendship of long years because he cannot on one occasion make himself completely understood. Sensible nations, he argued, will conduct themselves in like manner.

"Friendship between Germany and America," declared Dr. Meyer-Gerhard, "is a valuable possession for both nations, and it is worth while to take care it be saved to both."

The Lokal Anzeiger, which also printed the article, commenting editorially on it, said:

"The foregoing instructive and cheering remarks by Dr. Meyer-Gerhard show that the Imperial Government is on the right road with its treatment of questions existing between us and the United States. It is to be wished also that those circles which heretofore have been inclined to make light of our differences with America as being utterly unimportant will let themselves be taught better by Dr. Meyer-Gerhard's words."

AFTERNOON PAPERS COMMENT.

Meyer-Gerhard's Appeal for Friendship Stirs Discussion.

Berlin, June 29, via London, June 30.—The afternoon papers here give considerable attention to the appeal for the preservation of the friendship between the United States and Germany made in Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard's article in Der Tag and the Lokal Anzeiger today.

The Tageblatt strongly commends Dr. Meyer-Gerhard's expressions.

The Kreuz Zeitung agrees with Dr. Meyer-Gerhard that the American friendship is a valuable possession and expresses a willingness to have Germany do everything possible to maintain it. Asserting, however, that Germany is engaged in a war for existence, the paper asks what value to America could German friendship be after Germany's political and economic existence was destroyed.

The Kreuz Zeitung continues:

"So long as Germany's existence is threatened Germany cannot abandon any means at hand for hindering or restricting shipments of munitions to her enemies. Such an abandonment would be contrary to the dictates of national self-preservation and the humanitarian duties towards the brave soldiers and their wives and children. These are unable to contemplate the American shipments with Dr. Meyer-Gerhard's calmness while their dearest ones are

ARMIES OF RUSSIA CONTINUE RETREAT

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS WASHINGTON, D. C.

Driven Back Over Frontier and Gnila Lipa River.

GERMANS PROGRESSING

Seem Bent on Further Punishment of Russians Before Relaxing Intensity of Campaign—Germans Seem to Feel Secure.

London, June 29. — Driven back over their own frontier, north of Lemberg, and forced to cross the river Gnila Lipa, in southeast Galicia, the Russian armies continue to retreat before the Austro-Germans along a front of approximately 250 miles.

Berlin records progress in virtually the entire southeastern theatre, although violent fighting still is in progress beyond the Gnila Lipa, which joins the Dneister at Halicz.

Having forced a passage of this stream, General Von Linsingen's army is presumably astride the railway running from Halicz to Lemberg and Stanislau, and now doubtless is aiming at the line which runs from Lemberg to Odessa through Tarnopol.

It seems evident that Germany is bent on further punishment for the Russians before relaxing the intensity of her Galician campaign, but with the Russians across the frontier the Germans will have to rely almost solely on road transport and their advance will be slower.

The British Anxious.

The British press still voices the hope that the Russians soon will find a tenable line and deliver a counter blow, but there is a note of anxiety in nearly all accounts, together with the warning that either the capture of Warsaw or the seizure of the great railway lines which supply it would be disastrous to Russia and surely would be followed by another general German offensive in the West.

Notwithstanding the French attacks around Arras, it is argued that the Germans must feel comparatively secure in the West, else they would not have risked their tremendous envelopling move against the Russians. The French are persisting in their assaults in the neighborhood of Arras, but without appreciable chance in the situation.

MARSHALL SUGGESTS A DIFFERENT NAVAL POLICY

Says War in Europe Should Prove Lesson to This Country

Indianapolis, June 29.—Vice- President Marshall today suggested to the Indiana Spanish War Veterans that lessons of the European war were of sufficient value to the United States for this country to adopt a different naval policy.

"If the European conflict were demonstarting that a $700,000 submarine could destroy a $7,500,000 superdreadnought, he asked, should the peoples money be further expended for superdreadnoughts?"

The vice president made an appeal for the coming of the time, "when we will submit all international problems to courts of justice vested with powers to enforce their decrees."

The veterans sent a telegram to President Wilson pledging their support of his policies "to maintain peace, and if necessary, to uphold our national honor and dignity."

GUGGENHEIMS TO TAKE OVER GOLD HILL MINE

Such is the Report Now Current in Washington.

Owners of Majority of Stock in North Carolina Property Ask for Time to Make the Lease—Investigation Being Made.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., June 29.—The American Smelting Company, which is controlled by the Guggenheims, it is understood, are considering a proposition to lease the Gold Hill gold and copper mine which has been operated under the management of Walter George Newman and others for some time past. The Guggenheims, according to the report, have sent mining experts to Gold Hill to make an investigation.

The owners of a majority of the stock have asked for time—until July 11—in which to make the lease.

The Gold Hill company is in the hands of a temporary receiver and Messrs. Linn & Linn, of Salisbury, representing the creditors, have been pressing for a permanent receivership. Senator Swanson, of Virginia, who with other senators and members of Congress are financially interested in the mine, asked for time to turn the property over to owners who would be able to work the old mine to advantage.

Cotchett and Chinnis.

Representative Godwin has appointed C. C. Chinnis, of Brunswick county, to West Point, and L. M. Cotchett, of New Hanover to Annapolis.

R. G. and Ben F. Lassiter, of Oxford, are here to attend the marriage of their sister, Miss Katharine Lassiter, to Mr. Leo Simmons, which will take place at the Church of the Epiphany tomorrow at noon. P. R. A.

ENGLISH WASTE IS NATIONAL DANGER

Premier Asquith Urges Britons to Use Economy.

APPEAL MADE TO ALL

Both Poor and Rich Expected to So Restrict the Expenditures as to Enable Raising of Funds to Carry on War

London, June 28.—Penny-wise economy heretofore has not been a strong feature of the gatherings at Guild Hall, so closely connected with aldermanic banquets of proverbial opulence, but Premier Asquith today chose this home of wealth to initiate a movement in support of the British war loan. He urged personal thrift throughout the nation so as to make it possible for the country to bear the strain of the expenditure of $15,000,000 daily entailed by the cost of the war.

As if to give the campaign a good send off, the first really big subscription to the war loan was announced simultaneously with the appearance of Premier Asquith on the platform. It was by a London assurance company and for 3,000,000 pounds sterling.

Premier Asquith emphasized that this was the first great democratic loan in the financial history of Great Britain. The state, he said, was appealing to all classes, even those whose resources were most limited.

Waste a National Danger

"Waste on the part of either individuals or classes," said Mr. Asquith, "which always is foolish and short sighted, is, in these times, nothing short of a national danger."

The Premier dismissed as impracticable the idea of selling investments, property ,or of borrowing abroad.

"The amount that could be raised abroad in comparison to the sum required, "he said," would be practically infinitesimal, and if it were possible on any considerable scale we should have to face the prospect of ending the war a debtor country."

The only other course, he declared, was that his countrymen diminish their expenditures and increase their savings. Mr. Asquith continued:

Urges People to Economize

"The state of the trade balance between ourselves and other countries at this moment affords grounds, I don't say for anxiety, but for serious thought. For the first five months of the present year our imports have increased by 32,500,000 pounds sterling ($162,500,000), while our exports and re exports have decreased by 73,750,000 pounds sterling ($368,750,000). That means that for 12 months our indebtedness to other countries will reach over 260,000,000 pounds ($1,300,000,000.) The only way to counteract this by reducing all unnecessary personal expenditure on imported articles such as tea, sugar, wine, petrol, etc., and on goods made in this country, so that a larger quantity may be left to sell abroad."

Remarking that it was not merely a question of self-preservation Mr. Asquith proceeded:

"There is not a man or woman who has seen what is hanging in the balance but who has during the past year become greatly conscious that the battle we are engaged in touches interests and ideals far beyond the shores of these islands, beyond even the confines of our world-spread empire, and realizes that it concerns the whole future of humanity."

ALLIES ENLIST U. S. A. SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Induced to Desert American Service for British.

Federal Agent Charges That Cash Bonuses, Free Transportation and Promise of Special Pay Are Offered.

San Francisco, June 29.—United States soldiers and sailors, lured by cash bonuses of $10 each, free transportation to Europe and prospects of special pay and spectacular fighting, have been induced to desert the American service for the British army, according to a Federal agent who has been working on the investigation of recruiting activities in California.

It was said the recruiting agents worked in the army and navy branches of the Y. M. C. A. here. Testimony to this effect will be presented to the Federal grand jury which went deeper into the operations of alleged recruiting agents today.

Witnesses testified that some 300 men shipped from here to New York for ultimate service in the British army were given medical examinations at 17 State street, next to the British consulate, in New York. Frank Cook, one of the recruits arrested in New York and returned here, said at this number a "Captain Roche or Roach took charge of the recruits."

San Francisco, June 29.—The Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. here was a recruiting ground for agents of the Allies until recently, Federal officials said today. Investigation into the alleged recruiting led to this institution, they reported. Interior towns, including Sacramento, they found, showed evidences of having been searched for material.

Indications were said to be that more than $100,000 was spent in the California recruiting.

EXPERT TESTIFIES IN BRIDES MURDER CASE

George Joseph Smith, Defendant, Creates Scene.

Experts Consider None of the Bath Tub Deaths of Prisoner's Three Brides Consistent With Accident Theory.

London, June 29. — At today's session of the trial for murder of George Joseph Smith, husband of three wives who died in their baths, Dr. Spilsbury, a noted pathologist, gave expert testimony of the effects of a sudden fit or fainting spell on a person in a bath. Regarding Alice Burnham, one of Smith's brides, drowned in her bath tub at Blackpool, Dr. Spilsbury declared it would have been impossible for a person of her size to have been in such a condition, submerged in either a sitting or a lying position, in the bath tub produced in court.

Referring to the prisoner's evidence that he had found the woman lying on her left side in the tub, the physician remarked:

"If this is true, it would have been impossible for her arm to have been bruised, as it was found to be."

Both Dr. Spilsbury and Dr. Wilcox, another expert, expressed the opinion that the deaths of all three women were consistent with their legs having been lifted and pulled while they were in their baths and their heads thereby submerged. Dr. Wilcox said he considered none of the deaths was consistent with accidental causes.

An outburst by the prisoner, who denounced the Scotland Yard witness and addressed him as a scoundrel, and shouted: "I don't care whether you sentence me to death or not," marked the close of the case for the prosecution.

No evidence was adduced by the defense, and Prosecutor Bodkin began his address to the jury.

COMMISSIONER SHIPMAN IN DETROIT DELIVERS ADDRESS

Discusses Labor Conditions in South, Tenantry Especially.

Detroit, Mich., June 29.—"Labor conditions in the South," and "Industrial Progress in New England," were the topics taken up today by the convention here of the Association of Governmental Labor Officials of the United States and Canada. M. L. Shipman, Labor Commissioner of North Carolina, discussed the labor situation in Southern states.

"Tenant labor in the South, taken as a whole, is not what may be called satisfactory," said Mr. Shipman. "The principal reason for this situation is the fact that the large supply of fresh land available makes the tenant farmer careless of fertilization and general improvement. Few farms in the South are cultivated to the full."

MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT WANTS PEACE STATEMENT FROM GOVERNMENT

London, June 29.—David Mason, a liberal member of the House of Commons for Coventry, has given notice that he will ask Premier Asquith in the House on Wednesday "whether, in view of certain speeches by some members of the German parliament, demanding a speedy and honorable peace, His Majesty's government will consider the advisability of stating more specifically than heretofore the terms upon which such a peace would be possible, with the object of hastening such a happy consummation."

HENRY PAGE HEADS NEW ORGANIZATION

"North Carolina State Bureau of Publicity" Launched.

HUGH M'RAE PRESIDES

About 150 Representative Citizens Meet in Raleigh and Organize Movement for Development of the State's Resources

(Special Star Telegram)

Raleigh, N. C., June 29.—There was organized here today the North Carolina State Bureau of Publicity for the development of agriculture and industry. Henry A. Page was chosen president and the other officers are Vice-President, E. C. Branson, Chapel Hill; A. E. Tate, High Point; Frank R. Hewitt, Asheville; Clarence Poe, Raleigh; A. W. McLean, Lumberton; O. L. Joyner, Greensville; Secretary, J. C. Forester; Treasurer, A. A. Thompson, Raleigh.

The by-laws provide that the officers shall constitute an executive committee and that the directors shall consist of not more than three from each congressional district, these to be elected by the members of the State organization in the district. The minimum membership fee for individual members is $10 and the directors can fix other and larger fees for corporations and organizations.

The purposes of the organization are declared to be the study of the needs and resources of the State by sections; secure publicity for resources to attract thrifty people to the State; acquaint the people of the State with the advantages of the different sections ;aid in assuring reasonable prices to prospective settlers for homes; cooperate with local, county and civic organizations, railroads and other organizations in attracting people to the State.

The present temporary officers are to serve until the directors organize and elect permanent officers on or before October 1st.

President E. K. Graham, of the University of North Carolina, was the temporary chairman for the morning session and Hugh MacRae president of the afternoon session.

There were probably 150 citizens from many sections of the State here for the meeting, including representatives of the leading railroad systems of the State, notably G. A. Cardwell, for the Atlantic Coast Line; Z. P. Smith, for the Southern; B. E. Rice, Norfolk Southern; J. A. Pride, Seaboard Air Line. Each endorsed heartily the movement and pledged cooperation, paying high tribute to North Carolina resources and possibilities. Also W. H. Manns, of Baltimore, representing the Southern Settlement and Development Organization was present.

There were talks by Clyde A. Davis, secretary of the Sand Hill Board of Trade; A. D. Ivie, Rockingham, Junius Harden and others.

The special committee recommended as the name for the organization the "North Carolina Development League," but this elicited a wide variance of views, numbers of other names being suggested. Junius Harden raised the first objection by declaring that the term "league" did not taste good to great numbers of people interested in the welfare of the proposed organization. The matter of the name went over to the late afternoon session when the issue was settled ,many still complaining that the name adopted is entirely too long if intensely explicit.

WILL ASK FOR REPEAL OF NEW SEAMAN'S LAW

Maritime Association to Urge Special Session of Congress

Resolutions Set Forth That the Measure Causes Critical Situation to Shipping Interests—Will Defeat Its Original Purpose

New York, June, 29.—The Maritime Association of the port of New York, numbering 800 representatives of domestic and foreign steamship lines entering this port, is preparing an appeal to president Wilson for a special session of Congress to repeal the new Seaman's law.

In resolutions adopted by the association, it is set forth that "enforcement of this law will be most disastrous in effect and its drastic and impracticable provisions will defeat the very purposes for which it was said to be enacted."

The situation is so critical to shipping interests, it is asserted, "as to warrant and fully justfy the President in calling a special session of Congress for the repeal of this law before its ruinous provisions shall become effective."

Unless the law is repealed, the association asserts, long established lines will of necessity be withdrawn and other lines heavily handicapped. Copies of the resolutions were sent to every commercial organiation along the Atlantic seaboard.

ANXIETY IS FELT OVER MEXICO CITY

Operations Cause Foreigners Grave Apprehension.

TROOPS BEING MASSED

Carranza Expects to Take City in Few Days—Naval Vessel Sent to Los Mochis to Report Conditions

Washington, June 29—In the absence of direct reports from Mexico City, which for nearly ten days has been cut off by rail and wire from the outside world, there was much anxiety in official quarters today concerning conditions in the old capital and its vicinity. From previous dispatches, it is known that the food supply is short and that the danger of military operations being carried into the city itself has caused grave apprehension among foreigners.

The State Department's only information during the day came from American consular officers at Vera Cruz whose reports were summarized in this statement:

Carranza Massing Troops

"The Department's latest advices regarding the Mexico City situation are to the effect that General Carranza is massing a large number of troops and expects to take the city within two or three days. He has issued instructions to protect non-combatants."

Officials were gratified by press dispatches indicating that the diplomatic corps was active in trying to arrange for the safety of foreigners in case of fighting in the city, and for the protection of private property in the event of an evacuation.

The State Department's summary of conditions in Mexico issued tonight contained the following:

Conditions Reported Quiet

"As a result of inquiries received at the Department regarding the welfare of American citizens at Los Mochis, the Navy Department was requested to order a naval vessel to proceed to the vicinity of Los Mochis to investigate and report on conditions. A report received from the United States ship Colorado under date of June 27th states that the New Orleans has arrived at Topolobampo and that its preliminary report states that conditions at Los Mochis are satisfactory and that Manager Johnson, of the United Sugar Company, who was reported to have been killed, is well, as is his entire family. There has been no Indian raid since June 17.

"A mail report just received from Tampico states conditions in Tampico are quiet."

Gonzales' Attack Suspended.

Dispatches to the Carranza agency from Vera Cruz tonight said that Gonzales' attack on Mexico City had been suspended temporarily on account of torrential rains. Arnold V. Shanklin, American consul general, and Charles J. O'Connor, Red Cross representative, were said to have left Vera Cruz today for Mexico City aboard a special coach provided by Carranza.

Shanklin and O'Connor, who are to co-operate in relieving distress in the capital expect to be passed through the lines of the contending forces or to enter with General Gonzales if he defeats the Zapata defenders.

SAY THAW WAS SANE WHEN HE SHOT WHITE

Three Alienists Testify as to His Mind.

Dr. Bancroft Says Killing of White Was an Impassionate, Impulsive Act, Caused by Jealousy. Not a Paranoiac.

New York, June 29.—Harry K. Thaw is a sane man in the opinion of three alienists who testified as experts today at the jury proceedings to determine Thaw's mental condition. One of the witnesses, Dr. Charles P. Bancroft, head of the New Hampshire State hospital for the insane and a member of the Federal Commission which examined Thaw during his sojourn in New Hampshire, declared that Thaw always had been sane.

Thaw's act in killing Stanford White, Dr. Bancroft said, was not the product of a systematized delusion such as characterizes the true paranoiac.

"The killing of Stanford White," he said, "appeared to us a passionate, impulsive act, growing out of a condition of mind due chiefly to anger and jealousy, which was the final culmination of a series of circumstances that had been bearing down on him a long time. It did not seem a type of paranoia, but was due to jealousy of Mr. White, not to a diseased condition of mind.

"Thaw knew that White had been antagonistic to him in an unpleasant way. He wanted to get even with White. His act was the product of a sane mind, which, after he had indulged in champagne, suddenly lost control of itself."

"Then you believe Thaw never was insane?"

"I do. Another reason for my belief is that Thaw expressed regret for his deed. A paranoiac never expresses regret. He continually tries to justify the deed and no amount of persuasion can convince him he has done wrong."

GENERAL ANGELES SAYS HE DESIRES PEACE IN MEXICO

In Washington to Learn Sentiment of Officials Toward Problem.

HE ISSUES A STATEMENT

Opposed to Huerta But Stands With Villa and His Proposals.

El Paso, Texas, June 29.—Jose Isabel Robles, minister of war in the cabinet of Eulalio Gutierres, announced here tonight that the leaders of the two larger warring factions have agreed to discuss peace terms, perhaps within two weeks.

Since the overthrow of Gutierres's government Robles has not been identified with either Villa or Carranza. According to his story, he was chosen by influential Mexicans anxious to end the fighting.

Robles did not reveal any terms of the agreement he claims to have brought about, but said that by the middle of July Villa will be on the border to meet Obregon, the two sanctioning the conference.

Robles intimated that the successor of his work had been hastened by fear created at headquarters of both Villa and Carranza that the revolution popularly believed about to be begun by Huerta would so complicate the situation in Mexico that the United States might intervene.

Washington, June 29.—General Felipe Angeles, right hand man of General Francisco Villa, came to Washington today to deny intimations that he was involved in the activities of Victoriano Huerta and his associates and at the same time to learn the sentiment of officials toward the Mexican problem.

The general issued a statement saying he was opposed to Huerta and all that he represented in Mexicon politics and that after a brief stay here would go to Sonora on a private mission for General Villa, returning afterwards to the battle front to remain with his chief.

Department of Justice officials had no additional details today concerning the charges and evidence on which Generals Huerta and Orozco were arrested at El Paso. They expressed the opinion, however, that the arrests already had had a wholesome effect in preventing the launching of a new Mexican revolutionary movement.

Wishes to See President.

General Angeles wishes to talk with President Wilson. He was not directed by Villa to do so, he said, but is anxious to learn just what Mexican policy the United States intends to pursue. General Angeles agrees with President Wilson's recent statement that the various elements must come to an understanding. He told friends that he and General Villa would support for the provisional presidency any capable man who represents the principles and ideals for which the revolution has been fought.

Maj. Gen. Hugh Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, was the only official on whom General Angeles called today. Enrique C. Llorente, Villa's Washington representative, acted as interpreter. Angeles brought a letter of introduction from General Villa to General Scott. The contents of the letter were not disclosed, but it was understood to have showed clearly that Generals Villa and Angeles are not at odds as has been persistently reported.

Attracted Much Attention.

A tall, athletic figure, Angeles attracted much attention as he went to the War Department. Angeles received his military education in France, and for a long time was superintendent of the military school at Chapultepec, the Mexican West Point. He defended Madero in the street fighting in Mexico City and took a prominent part in the later campaign against Huerta. To his skill in handling artillery has been attributed much of Villa's military success.

The general issued the following formal statement:

"In order to contradict certain false rumors concerning himself which have recently found their way into the press of the United States, General Felipe Angeles today made the following statement:

"The cordial relations that have long existed between General Villa and myself remain unchanged and I shall shortly report to him in person for assignment to duty.

Opposed to Huerta.

"I am now, as I have always been, opposed to Huerta, his regime and all that Huerta and his fellow traitors stand for.

"I have neither seen nor conferred with any person or persons representing the reactionary element in Mexico. While in Boston, I received a social visit from Mr. Manuel Calero, who acted as my counsel when I was imprisoned by Huerta in 1913, but the political affairs of Mexico were not discussed.

"I advocate the restoration of constitutional government in Mexico by constitutional means so that the government when set up may enjoy constitutional sanction and thus effect the reforms so urgently demanded by the people by means entirely lawful.

In Favor of Harmony.

"Like General Villa I favor the suggestion of President Wilson that the contending factions should confer, and in a patriotic spirit endeavor to harmonize their differences in order to establish constitutional government, a government which the United States

Boston, June 29.—New York tied the score in the ninth inning today, gained a lead of one run in the tenth, put out two Boston batsmen in the last half of that inning and then lost the game, 4 to 3. Ruth had not allowed a New York runner beyond second base until the ninth. Boston scored the winning run on Speaker's long hit to center, his fifth hit in as many times at bat.

Though moving around with difficulty he played his usual star game at second, and drove out a home run, double and a single. His home run came with Hughes on base and resulted in Boston's vistory.

OFF DAY WITH ROCKY MOUNT LOSES TO NEWPORT NEWS

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 29.—Driving the Tar Heels' star slabman, Applegate, to the dugout with five hits and six runs in the fifth frame, Newport News evened up the series, winning the second this afternoon by a score of ten to nothing.

Such a downpour of hits hasn't come the way of the local slabsman during his career in this league and in the fifth, four two base hits, one single, coupled with two passes, worked his undoing. O'Brien, who went to the relief with a man on third, yielded one more single and another run before the session was closed. In the seventh three more runs were added on a miscue and three singles off O'Brien.

It was decidedly an off day with the Tar Heels who fielded like fiends, frequently cutting off hits but who were unable utterly to connect in the pinches with men in the paths. There were but two of the Newport News hits that didn't have a part in the scoring. The greatest crowd of the season overflowed the stands and into the fields.

FAIRMONT DEFEATS LUMBERTON 1 TO 0 IN INTERESTING GAME

Fairmont, N. C., June 29.—In probably the fastest and most interesting game played by the local team this season, Fairmont today won from Lumberton 1 to 0. Fairmont scored the lone run of the game in the first inning, when C. Pittman drew a pass to first, was sacrificed to second, took third on a fielder's choice and came home when North fumbled a throw to first for the third out.

The game was devoid of any spectacular features but the work of both pitchers deserves especial mention. Twice Floyd pulled himself out of holes with three men on bases without allowing anything resembling a tally. Currie, of University fame, pitched great ball, fanning 13, but his teammates were unable to overcome the one run lead.

THE TIGER MANAGER AND HIS GREAT PLAYER.

Ty Cobb — Hugh Jennings.

This picture shows two typical photographs of two very great baseball players—Ty Cobb, in the act of bunting, and his manager, Hugh Jennings, wearing his fine broad grin after his great outfielder has succeeded in the bunt. Cobb has a peculiar way of drawing up his lips at the moment he bunts, but not so the pitcher or the fielders of the opposing club see the action in time to offset his play.

There is little doubt that Cobb is the greatest of baseball players. He may even be the greatest players the game has known.

SHORTSTOP BARRY ON MARKET MACK WEEDING OUT OLD MEN.

Philadelphia, June 29.—On the heels of the announcement that Pitcher Bob Shawkey had been sold by the Philadelphia Athletics to the New York Americans came a report today that Shortstop Jack Barry, of the former world's champions, is on the market.

Barry has not played since June 19 because of an injury. Manager Connie Mack is in Washington and other club officials would not discuss the report that he intends to sell Barry.

It also was reported Mack intends to get rid of all his high salaried men except possibly "Stugy" McInnis, first baseman, Amos Strunck ,outfielder, and one or two others. The Athletics' manager is building up a new team of young players and within the last few weeks has added several young pitchers and two or three infielders.

THEATRICAL

The Grand offers today a three-reel masterpiece by the Selig company entitled "How Callahan Cleaned Up Little Hell." It is a story of corrupt municipal politics; a tale that in the past has been applicable to political conditions in many large cities; a drama of plot and counterplot, and of how John Callahan, captain of police, kept in the straight and narrow way, and finally won his deserved reward. Thomas Santchi, who plays the leading role, performs a great task in a thoroughly workmanlike manner. Other capable members of the cast are Lafayette McKee, Harold Howard and Richard Le Strange. The Grand management is making every effort to show the best in moving pictures and as the old saying goes, seeing is believing. Drop in today and see for yourself. In addition to the Selig three-reeler the Hearst Selig News Pictorial will make you familiar with all the current events. Searching German steamships in New York harbor; transferring gold coin to the new sub-treasury; Army and Navy athletes meet at San Diego; Troops leaving Montreal, Can., and the burial of the Lusitania victims at Queenstown. All this for the tiny admission of 5 cents.

Tomorrow will be Paramount day. Max Figman, the noted stage star, will be seen in a five-part feature by Lasky company, entitled "What's His Name." Geo. Barr McCutcheon's Intimate Romance of Stage Life.

Thrilling and more thrilling grows the Black Box with each succeeding installment. The 12th episode at the Bijou today beginning at 11 A. You want to see the latest visitation of the mysterious hands, as they carefully and methodically saw away the timbers from under the bridge. You want to see the crash of the train, and the burning timbers after the great wreck, in which many are supposed to have perished. You want to see Anna Little's great plunge to safety in the surging waters of the river below. You want to see these and a hundred and one other incidents just as startling, just as realistic and just as thrilling, in this, the 12th great episode in two solid reels of thrills.

Another great picture today is "The Circus Girl's Romance," a real ring romance, in two reels, featuring daring Marie Walcamp with Wellington Playter in the leading roles. It is a happy combination of a most romantic love story, real circus life filmed from a circus, and those wonderful scenes you always get when daring Marie Walcamp and a few of the Universal's wild animals appear together. A raging, roaring lion is the principal character.

Gene Gauntier and Jack Clark also present a great single reel drama, "The Woman Hater's Baby," a unique play in which "baby" plays the leading role with this popular pair supporting.

SEIMATSU KIMURA, THE BILLY SUNDAY OF JAPAN

Great Japanese Revivalist Condncts Meetings

Associated Press Correspondent Describes Scene at Tokio, Where Converted Native Preaches the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Tokio, June 28.—Close by the houses of Parliament, within which members were discussing the question of China, there stood a big tent, fronted and flanked by many bright colored Japanese banners. Through the flaps came the sound of a man's voice, pleasant, resonant and powerful. The voice was exhorting people to come to God and be saved.

The correspondent of The Associated Press, who was on his way to the Diet, stopped at the entrance of the tent. A little group of smiling, welcoming Japanese were there.

"Who is that man speaking?" was asked.

"Why, don't you know?" came the answer. "That's Kimura, the Billy Sunday of Japan."

At the same moment the notes of a Christian hymn sung in chorus filled the great tent and bursting without caused hundreds of passing people to stop, listen and inquire. They were informed that it was all a part of the great Christian evangelistic movement now under way throughout Japan, and that Seimatsu Kimura, the young revivalist of Japan, friend and student of Dwight L. Moody, was conducting the Tokio meetings.

The picture was much the same as American revivalist meetings with the added interest by the rich-colored flowing kimono, the black hair of the Japanese women, the occasional clatter of the wooden shoe, and the many-hued Japanese decorations.

The music ceased. Then a Japanese with regular handsome features, medium in height, rather stockily built, dressed in European clothes, stepped forward from his co-workers on the platform and began to talk in Japanese. He began quietly, but soon his voice rose and his face changed as becoming more impassioned he discoursed eagerly upon the theme of salvation. Leaning forward and shooting out a clenched fist before him, the evangelist cried to the men: "You students in Tokio, sitting there on your Webster dictionaries, you think you are fine and mighty, indeed. You think how much better you are than other people; but, I ask, have you found the love of Jesus Christ?"

Then turning to the young ladies, he shouted: "You, with your pretty kimonos and pretty faces, think you, perhaps, that you are saved by these things alone? Prepare yourself ere it is too late. Come into the kingdom of Jesus Christ and be saved."

Then he went on hammering home truths to the different sections of his audiences, gesticulating violently at times, moving nervously back and forth upon the platform, jumping up and down, crouching to his knees, and especially using his wonderful black eyes and his expressive face, to bring home the thought he was trying to communicate.

Suddenly he flung his right arm upward towards a sign which rested above the platform and read it both in Japanese and English.

"Christ for the citizens of Tokio! The citizens of Tokio for Christ!" "Harken to the words, my brothers. Harken to the words, my brothers and sisters. My aim is to convert to Christianity everyone of the 60,000,000 souls in Japan today. Ie believe in sudden conversions. Come here now, and give me your hand as an emblem that you have accepted the faith."

A number of people walked up to the revivalist and accepted Christianity. Then there was more music and the correspondent was introduced to the Sankey of the Tokio revivalist movement. He is called "Vio" Sakai, because he loves the violin and as Sankey was singer for Moody so Sakai is the player for Kimura.

The following day the correspondent was told by the revivalist himself something of his life and something of his hopes for the future.

Seimatsu Kimura, who is known by his American friends as Henry Kimura, was born in Japan about 40 years ago. "I was the son of a wine seller," he said, "and when I was a boy of 16 I was kicked out of my house. I sold newspapers to earn enough to eat. At the age of 16 I was converted to Christianity and somehow, since then, life has gone on happily and fruitfully. I think, as I told Dwight L. Moody one day, that it is a case of Philippians 4-19. 'But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Jesus Christ.'"

"I was one of three children," he went on, "and of my brothers, Stishiro Iwamura (adopted by the Iwamura family) is now preparing for Sunday school service by studying at the theological seminary at Hartford, Conn. And I would like to note my other brother and my father and mother have been converted.

"When I was 19 years old I went to the United States to learn how to win souls. Dwight L. Moody was holding revivalist meetings in South California and so big were the crowds that I had a hard time trying to hear him. But I said to the big policeman at the door: 'Look here, Mr. Policeman, I have come 5,000 miles to hear Mr. Moody and you just must bet me in.'

"That was how I first met Mr. Moody. I stayed close by him and when he left for the North it was I who carried his satchel. Mr. Moody was astounded to find me following him onto the train and was more astounded when I told him that I was going with him. I told the great preacher that I wanted to become an evangelist. I asked him what school I should go to. I said I had asked two people and they had given me different advices. Mr. Moody said: 'If you ask five people you will have five different advices. There is only one being who can advise you truly and that is God.' And I said to Mr. Moody at once: 'It's all decided, I'm going to the Moody Institute, at Chicago.'"

Mr. Kimura was getting interested in his reminiscences and was punctuating his story with some of his expressive gestures.

"Mr. Moody looked up at me and said: 'Young man, how much money have you got?' I answered: 'Mr. Moody, I have got 35 cents.' The great evangelist looked me over with a good deal of astonishment. 'Well!' he ejaculated, 'how do you ever expect to study two years in Chicago on 35 cents?' And I said quickly: 'Mr. Moody—Philippians 4-19.'

"Mr. Moody smiled broadly and he sang out to one of his followers: 'Please remember this young man. He is going to Chicago to study.' When I got to Chicago, I found a scholarship awaiting me."

Mr. Kimura came back to Japan and proceeded to have six years of evangelistic work with the Japanese people. He told his friends to give him 'the most broken-down old church in Japan.' There were only thirty-five members when he started, but there were three hundred when he finished. Then he resigned to take up bigger evangelistic work and in June, 1914, he went to the United States, stopping at Honolulu long enough to convert over a thousand Japanese to Christianity. "There is one thing that I have learned from you Yankees, you Americans," delared Mr. Kimura, as a pleasant aside, "and that is your 'stickituiveness.'"

It was in Denver that Kimura first saw Billy Sunday. "It was the first time in 25 years that I had such an experience," he said, "I wept six times in one hour on hearing him." He joined Sunday's meetings at Des Moines and during three weeks attended over fifty meetings.

Kimura came back to Japan in April of this year and began to take part in the great evangelistic campaign. He has been talking to big crowds and every week for the next year and a half is filled with engagements. When he preaches he often uses a blackboard upon which he writes in Japanese or Chinese characters the texts of his sermons. This method, he said, made things much clearer to everybody. Sometimes, when his voice fails he uses a megaphone. He found that preaching two or three times a day in the vigorous manner he uses was very tiring so he goes to bed every afternoon to prepare for the evening sermon. "I try to make things as possible for everybody," he said, "and I think nobody ever goes to sleep when I'm preaching. Especially, I'm after the backsliders. I'm after them all, everyone of the 60,000,000 people."

NEW YORK BONDS SOLD FOR MUCH LESS THAN EXPECTED.

Issue of $71,000,000 Failed to Sell for Anything Like Estimations.

New York, June 29.—Unusual interest attached to today's sale by the City of New York of $71,000,000 of 4 1-2 per cent bonds, not only because of the magnitude of the offering, the largest in the city's history, but more particularly because of its bearing upon the general investment situation at this time.

Considering the enormous cash resources available at this and other domestic centers and taking the attractive interest rate into account, the result was said to be much below expectations.

It was freely predicted in the financial district a few days ago that the average bid for the 50-year issue, which comprises $46,000,000 of the whole, would be at or around 103, while the serial issue was expected to average at least 102. Only a few of the small opened today came within range of the estimates, one of the most important of the "all or none" bids made by a leading banking syndicate falling short of these figures.

To a large extent the disturbed financial conditions in Europe were responsible for the low bids.

TOP O' THE MORNING

It takes a great soul to be a great friend, a large, catholic, steadfast, and loving spirit.. One to be a friend must forgive much, forget much, forbear much. It costs to be a friend. Nothing else in life, except motherhood, costs so much. It not only costs time, affection, patience, love, but sometimes a man must even lay down his life for his friend. —SHEPPARD.

A NAVY UP TO DATE

The flannel mouthed fellows and wrathful writers who jumped on Secretary Daniels because the navy is not what it ought to be, are mostly playing on the soft pedal since they discovered what the Secretary has done and is continuing to do to improve the efficiency and strength of the navy. Their crusade was political, of course, and not patriotic, else they would have tendered co-operation instead of criticism. We wonder if there are Republicans or Democrats or Progressives who have so little sense as to believe that any Democratic, Republican or Progressive Secretary of the Navy could not be depended upon to favor every possible improvement of the navy.

Secretary Daniels knew the defects of the navy better than his critics and was more anxious than they to improve its efficiency to the extent that Congress would furnish the money to do it. His critics, however, were more bent upon doing something to Daniels than doing something for the navy.

Secretary Daniels did not even defend himself from the attacks leveled at him instead of the navy, such as it was when he took it over from the hands of Republican administrations galore. He could have told them more about the defects of the navy than they knew, but it was not prudent or wise for the head of his country's navy to fly blow it like a lot of irresponsible political mongers have done.

They could not possibly have benefitted the navy by attacking a Democratic secretary. On the other hand, they could do more harm to the navy than they could possibly do to Secretary Daniels. The senseless critics of the navy let the world know its alleged defects, whereas any secretary would have been absolutely devoid of good sense to have given world publicity to naval defects or to the plans for increasing its efficiency. There are some kinds of publicity that should be avoided, and the kind that concerns either the army or the navy is what patriotic Americans of all parties should avoid, unless such publicity could be confined to the American people themselves, which is impossible, Patriotic Americans should let the Government handle those propositions, while they should offer all the advice and co-operation that might be necessary.

Secretary Daniels' recent speech and his continuous efforts in behalf of a greater navy are making his critics open their eyes. Even the blatant New York Sun, with its high class cynicism, has recently been disposed to give Secretary Daniels some credit for not being disposed to let the navy go to the junk heap. Concerning the Secretary and his speech, the always fair New York World says in an editorial:

"Secretary Daniel's strong speech at the opening session o fthe Naval War College should satisfy those who have been his severest critics. It should displease no one except ultra-pacifists; and 1915 is not their year for commending their policies to the public. Mr. Daniels has seen in this fateful time "old theories crumbling every day" and "old tactics, old strategies disappearing overnight." He has seen great super-dreadnoughts hiding in guarded havens while the unseen terror of the underseas ravages at distances hitherto deemed impossible. He has noted fast cruisers using hovering dirigibles as eyes to guide their raids on enemy coasts. Reminding his hearers that "the courage of the American people in facing new conditions" has made the Nation great, Secretary Daniels meets the new conditions. He does not propose a navy of menacing size but a navy up to date. To this end he has made arrangements for fuller use of the best expert thought within the department, without compromising the necessary safeguard of civilian control. Next to Mr. Bryan, Mr. Daniels has been the member of the President's Cabinet most often and most harshly criticised. Nothing in his conduct of the office has justified the abuse that has been wreaked upon him. If he successfully devotes himself to such modernization of the navy as recent developments suggest, the need for which he so well states, he will disarm opposition by distinguished service."

Americans ought to know that their secretaries of the navy, to whatever party they belong, would not deliberately destroy the efficiency of such an institution as the sea arm o fits defense.

NEW FORWARD LOOKING ERA.

The great organization effected at Raleigh yesterday by the State's leading spirits in constructive initiative, means more for North Carolina than any movement heretofore launched in the interest of material progress. It means that the progressive forces of the entire State have combined in a powerful State organization to promote and develop the State's matchless resources and to discover and magnify the adaptabilities, advantages and opportunities which are part and parcel of the untouched resources peculiar in one or more particulars to every county in the State.

We knew the day was coming when North Carolina would wake up and recognize its potentialities for development. The time has at last come when a man will not be called a crank because he has preached the gospel of industrial and developmental progressiveness and had so many skeptics to turn a deaf ear to it. We are glad that everybody is beginning to appreciate the meaning of resources and is awakening to the fact that the possibilities in North Carolina are beyond our ingenuity to conceive in all their magnitude. When we begin to study and to know North Carolina, the truth will begin to dawn upon us concerning the geographic, climatic, geological and topographic premiership of this greatest of the South Atlantic States. In point of eligibility for distribution by water and rail, North Carolina holds the key to all the South Atlantic and Middle West territory and we will learn what a powerful factor that ought to be in the future development of the State. All we have to do is to know it right and take advantage of it.

So far as the State's resources, possibilities, advantages and adaptabilities are concerned, we will open our eyes when each and every county is studied and its own peculiar potentialities are discovered and made known to the people of the State as well as to those abroad.

The State organization will prove to be the clearing house in which will be gathered from every nook and corner the revelations which the awakened people of each section will have to make. Every chamber of commerce or other public organization of that class should be auxiliaries of the State body and co-operate in every particular to the common end of getting a line on the State's potentialities. This State organization affords the opportunity for every county to wake up and see itself going ahead with the whole State of North Carolina.

The State organization and the movement which it will set on foot under such powerful auspices means a new forward looking era for the Good Old North State.

THE AGE LIMIT IS UNKNOWN.

How old does a man have to be before he can be laid on the shelf and his work be put on the shoulders of younger men? Of course, the world places more reliance on the younger man, yet the experience and wisdom of his elders is a factor that is yet to be reckoned with. The war in Europe emphasizes that to a remarkable degree.

General Kitchener, generalissimo of the British army, is 65 and he is yet to be relied upon in spite of the efforts in England to lay him on the shelf. It was all a mistake to attack a man who had proven himself such an organizer as General Kitchener. The world will yet give him credit for having accomplished wonders. He had a herculean task to perform, evidently one which Lord Grey never anticipated when he became the aggressive head of England's war party. Kitchener is still on the job and he deserves to be.

Admiral von Tirpitz, the strong head of the German army, is 65. Admiral Fisher, and Admiral Jellicoe, of the British navy, are aged respectively 74 and 56 years. General Joffre, commander-in-chief of the gallant French army, is 63, and other French generals are Castelnau, 70; Pou, 67; and Galliemi, 69. Of the German generals, von Hindenburg is 68, and yet his strategy and activity have found no match in any of Russia's seven great armies. The same can be said of General Mackensen, aged 66, while German generals who are making themselves famous are von Kluck, aged 69; Heeringen, 65; Bissing, 71; and Haeseler, 73, all powerful among the military commanders who are handing down their names to history.

This explodes the idea that men should be retired because of age. It does not explode the idea that young men are still to be most depended upon, but it is not whether a man is old or young but what he knows and can do, whether he is 25 or 75 years of age. A man among men reaches no age limit, and the nations engaged in the world's greatest war knew upon whom to depend in a crisis.

For wisdom and leadership the older men may have the laurels, but after all it is the young men who have to fight the battles, make the sacrifices and win fame for their commanders and for themselves as army units, not to mention their individual heroism. After all, it is the youth who has to be depended on to march, counter march, advance, retreat, double quick, fight, and undergo all the fatigue and hardships of the firing line and the camp. It is men, whether old or young, who have their uses up to an age that has no limit, it seems.

WHO HIT UNCLE SAM AND BILLY PATTERSON?

Most of Uncle Sam's latter day troubles come from his being all sorts of a Jonah during this great European war. Great Britain interferes with his rights on the high seas, Germany shocks his sense of humaneness by sending ships to the bottom with his people, and Japan is standing in the open door in China so we can't get in without edging around her.

Japan tells us not to worry about that open door, and as a matter of fact we need not bother about worrying over it. The war in Europe makes it too late for us to worry. One of the most natural results of the war, plainly to have been foreseen as inevitable, is what Japan has done with China and will keep on doing with her. Those of us who foresaw that result of the war are not surprised at all, but the big surprise is coming to us later. When the war in Europe ends, every nation over there will expect its opportunities to be greater, but Uncle Sam can expect his to be smaller, unless what is suspected turns out to be the unexpected.

Uncle Sam is great on manifesting exports of cotton, grain, munitions of war, and also manifesting sympathy one way or the other, but when the war is all over not a one of the belligerents will sympathize with him. He will need it, too, and the way it will wind up won't make very much difference with the bad results of the war for Uncle Sam. The worst is yet to come—in the Orient.

Uncle Sam is already opening his eyes as if he thinks he sees what is going to happen to his trade in China. Uncle Sam may as well devote most of his attention to South America.

When the war comes to an end, the question will be who hit Billy Patterson and swatted Uncle Sam? If you do not know what this means make note of the fact that all of Uncle Sam's spare time is taken up with forwarding notes to Germany, Great Britain and Japan. What will the three answers amount to in the end? You guess.

Meanwhile, there is Mexico to worry with for so long a time as no one can guess. Uncle Sam does not have to go to sleep when he begins to look around and see what has happened to him while looking on at the war in Europe.

GOVERNOR JARVIS' MESSAGE.

One That Applies With Force to the People of the Whole South.

(Charleston News and Courier.)

Ex-Governor Jarvis, North Carolina's "Grand Old Man," lived "a plain and simple life," to quote his own words, and the estate which he left was not large; but the will in which he disposes of it, leaving everything to his widow, is a document which speaks with deep eloquence to those who loved him and whom he loved. "The people of North Carolina have greatly honored me," he writes, "and I desire to leave on record the final declaration of my everlasting gratitude to them and to make this last plea for the education of their children. Intelligence and virtue mark the standing of any people in State and Nation, and I would therefore urge the people to press the education of their children far beyond anything heretofore attempted." It is never easy in the hurly burly of affairs to see clearly and in perspective. We are confused by the heat and the din and in the midst of the struggle our standards of value are apt to get mixed. Not so with the man who, after a long and active and useful life, sits down in the sunset, his work all done, and seeks to formulate a last message to those who have trusted him and looked to him for guidance. He must brush all trivialities aside, must go to the heart of the matter, must deal only with that which is vital. So Governor Jarvis, surveying the progress which his people have made, eager that they shall go forward and not backward, that they shall hold fast to that which is true, that they shall escape the pitfalls which lie in the way of those who walk alone and unguided, as the people of a democracy must do, exhorts them that they shall not neglect the children. Only in knowledge lies safety. If the people of North Carolina are to preserve their integrity they must have intelligence as well as virtue, for without the first they will be robbed of the second. The great need of North Carolina is that it shall press forward with the education of the children "far beyond anything heretofore attempted." That is the great need of the whole South. It is the supreme requirement in South Carolina. The message of North Carolina's "Grand Old Man" is a message to us as well as to those to whom it was addressed.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Excellent management on part of the Seaboard Air Line Company is reflected in the statement issued by the directors after their meeting in New York, Thursday. Four hundred thousand dollars to the good in 11 months past —11 months of mighty tight times with the railroads in the South—is a fine record. At the same time, this was accomplished with no sacrifice in the upkeep of the road's equipment, the physical condition having been maintained up to the standard. Meantime, the Seaboard is going ahead with a new system of financing by which its condition may be expected to be still further improved. The Seaboard is rapidly taking its place among the finest lines in the country—Charlotte Observer.

No matter what North Carolina has done in the past, no matter how honorable or splendid the record, we are at a new day in the history of this country and it behooves North Carolina to be up and doing that it may not be outstripped in the progress which is going on in all parts of the country. Forward looking men in the State realize that now is the opportune time for North Carolina to strike for a greater North Carolina and that it may do this efficaciously it must be prepared to present every advantage which it possesses. First of all it should know these things itself, and should put them in shape so that the world may be put on notice that North Carolina is the State of all States which offers to settlers the greatest advantages.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The advance which has been made by North Carolina in the education of its people in recent years has been most remarkable, but still despite this the position which this State occupies in the column of illiteracy is one which calls to get at the fight with heaviest of blows to be rid of this halter about the neck of progress. Every force in North Carolina should throw itself into the fight to remove a blot which is a pretty black one from our present day record. The Junior Order of United American Mechanics in its work for moonlight schools in the State points the way to what can be done along this line of endeavor, and the record of what it is doing is a bright one for that organization. There are other organizations in this State which can well close up ranks and get shoulder to shoulder with the Junior Order in the great work which it is doing. What the Junior Order is doing to drive illiteracy out of the State should be given the hearty support of all the people. Indeed, in this matter the need is for co-operation along the entire line, and in every community in the State there should be organizations formed among the people to make a fight to educate wherever education is needed. This is work which is needed beyond the work of the public schools and the call is for volunteers to get into harness and go at it. This is the time of vacation from school duties in North Carolina and it offers an opportunity for individual service to boys and girls, to young men and young women who have been to school or college to put their services into use, and fight illiteracy. We hear of educated young men by the many thousands going to the wheat fields of the West when there are fields for work against illiteracy right at home which need their services. If there is used such idle forces of North Carolina which are available this summer we can well expect that there will be an inroad made into the figures of illiteracy of this State. And in every section some man, some woman, should lead the way. Here is an opportunity for doing a real and lasting service in the fight to rid North Carolina of illiteracy.—Raleigh News and Observer.

THEATRES ARE LEASED FROM MR. J. M. SOLKY

Grand And Victoria Under New Management

Deluka Bros., of Philadelphia, Are Now Proprietors—Mr. L. M. Peck to Have Active Charge—Mr. Solky Retires.

Announcement was made last night that the Grand and Victoria theatres had been leased from the proprietor, Mr. J. M. Solky, for a period of four years by Deluka Bros., of Philadelphia. The change is effective tomorrow when Mr. Solky will turn over the amusement houses to the new management. Mr. L. M. Peck, who came to Wilmington two years ago as manager of the Victoria, and has more recently been connected with the Grand theatre, will have active charge of both places.

Some time ago Mr. Solky leased the two theatres to Mr. R. H. DeBruler, of Atlanta, for a period of three months. The latter recently returned to Atlanta and Mr. Peck is already in charge. The Victoria was closed last week for the summer and no announcement has been made as to when it will be opened again or as to what kind of attractions will be put on when it is opened.

Deluka Bros. are well known railroad contractors of Philadelphia, there being three brothers in the firm. However, there is another brother who is in the theatrical business in the North. The new lessees have been in the city for the last two weeks and after looking over the field thoroughly, closed the deal with Mr. Solky yesterday.

Mr. Solky said last night that he had severed all connection with both theatres, so far as active management is concerned, and henceforth was going to devote his entire time to his large clothing business and other enterprises in which he is interested. He opened the Grand theatre about five years ago and made it a success from the start. Two years ago he built the Victoria theatre as a vaudeville house and has operated it since that time.

Mr. L. M. Peck came to Wilmington from McKeesport, Pa., where he was for a number of years in charge of a theatre. His extensive experience in the theatrical business combined with a pleasing personality and close attention to details makes him a splendid man for the position of manager. He said last night that so far as the Grand theatre is concerned there will be little or no change in its policy except that it will be his purpose and of those behind him in the undertaking to make improvements constantly and to keep fully abreast of the times.

Mr. Solky in leaving the theatrical field said he wished to thank the public for their liberal patronage and hoped that the same good will would be extended to the new proprietors.

DISCUSS CO-OPERATIVE PLAN

Rotary Club Committee and Business Men Attend Meeting Housewives' League—Rest Room Endorsed.

By special invitation the "Buy in Wilmington" committee of the Rotary Club and representative merchants of the city met at the headquarters of the Housewives' League yesterday morning at 10:30 for the purpose of holding a joint meeting with the Housewives' League to discuss ways and means of furthering the "Buy in Wilmington" movement, and for the further purpose of enlisting the interest of the merchants in the Merchants' Exhibit and Rest Room, which is maintained by the League in the Home Savings Bank building. There was a good representation of Wilmington's business men and members of the League present and it was the consensus of opinion of those present that the discussion will be productive of great good to all.

The meeting was presided over by the president of the League, Mrs. William Latimer. The opening talk was made by Mr. Roger Moore on behalf of the Rotary Club. Mr. Moore called attention to the statement that is frequently heard that the local merchants would not carry a sufficiently diverse stock to supply the demand and that for this reason many thousands of dollars were spent with mail order houses and many citizens made extensive purchases in other cities. He stated that he knew that this is true to some extent and that it is the determination of the Rotary Club to use its influence to put an end to this cause of complaint. In the course of his remarks Mr. Moore gave several specific instances of the inability of persons to obtain articles of general use in the local markets.

Mr. C. W. Polvogt replied with that no one could expect that merchants in a city of this size could carry as extensive variety of goods as the great department stores of the large cities. He suggested that probably citizens did not take the trouble to investigate the stocks of the local stores before making purchases out of town, and said that he or any other merchant would gladly order anything, wanted by a patron, which was not in stock.

Mr. Meares Harriss, secretary of the Rotary Club and a member of the "Buy in Wilmington" committee, stated that the object of the meeting was purely co-operative; that the club realized the conditions prevailing on both sides, and as a solution of the matter, suggested that a "Central Committee" or a complaint committee, consisting of three members of the Housewives' League, and a representative from each line of business, be appointed, with the idea of receiving complaints, suggestions, and ideas as to the failure of the merchants to carry in stock the usually necessary articles, or any failure of the ladies to carry out as far as possible, the spirit of co-operation for which the movement is conducted as a whole.

Mr. W. M. Atkinson on behalf of the grocers of the city stated that he and the others in his line were willing to carry anything for which there is a demand sufficient to warrant an investment in the goods.

Mr. D. C. Love called attention to the fact that the merchants of the city are dependant upon the women of the city for their support, and that it is proper that their desires should be considered and gratified. Mr. C. W. Rodgers, of the Independent Ice & Storage Co., was called upon and stated that he knew from his own experience that the ladies and other retail purchasers were not the only persons who failed to patronize home products and industries. He called attention to the fact that merchants, both wholesale and retail, were in the habit of purchasing in other markets goods produced locally.

In the general discussion which followed there was a free expression of views and opinions on both sides. The ladies explained that they are willing to purchase locally whenever it is possible to obtain what they desire at a price which is as low as elsewhere and when they can be assured that the merchants have not supplied others with duplicates of their purchases in dress patterns and suits. One lady stated that she had purchased a suit in a local store after being assured by the saleswoman that but one other like it had been sold and that to an out-of-town customer. She later saw six duplicates of her suit on the streets of Wilmington which had been sold from that store.

Attention was called to the difficulty in obtaining shoes in Wilmington and it was pointed out that the stocks were deficient in both quality and variety. One gentleman said he had attempted unsuccessfully to obtain shoes by order and had been forced to purchase from out of town. A number of those present described like experiences. It was regretted that no representative of the shoe trade was present.

After further discussion it was determined that the further efforts to correct the existing evils be left to a joint committee of the League and the Rotary Club. Representing the Housewives' League on this committee are Mesdames Gouverneur, Weathers, Rodgers, Moore and Koch. Representing the Rotary Club are Messrs. Moore, Polvogt, Harriss, Thacker and Ames.

Mrs. Gouverneur, of the executive committee of the Housewives' League, stated that the League had been supporting the Rest Room and Merchants' Exhibit from the amounts received as rental for advertising space and that each month they were called upon to face a deficit which had been supplied from the funds of the League, that the members felt that the exhibit had not been properly supported by the merchants of the city and that the advertising facilities furnished had not been duly appreciated. She stated that the enterprise is presented as a business proposition purely and that the ladies had no intention of asking more than strictly business consideration from the merchants.

If the attractive rooms and exhibits which are visited by six or seven hundred ladies each month do not furnish ample return for the advertising rates charged the ladies desire to know it so that they could discontinue their effort. It was also pointed out that the members of the League enjoyed no privileges in the rooms which are not shared freely by all the ladies of the city and all visitors to the city who care to make use of the comforts of the rooms. Those present who are advertisers were asked to express themselves freely as to the advertising value of the rooms.

Mr. William Peck, of the Cape Fear Hardware Co., who has carried a large exhibit continuously, spoke in the highest terms of the results of his advertising and urged that the rooms be continued. Mr. D. C. Love, of Yates & Co., praised the facilities of the rooms and stated that in his opinion every effort should be made to continue the exhibit. All who spoke on the subject expressed great appreciation of the advertising value of the exhibit and of the comfort afforded the ladies of this and the neighboring towns. All were agreed that Wilmington should have a "business exhibit," as the exhibit was aptly styled by Mr. Love, and that it is the duty of the business men of the city to give their hearty support to the efforts of the Housewives' League.

LAKE JUNALUSKA MEETINGS

Interesting Programme Announced for Conferences at Southern Methodist Assembly Grounds.

Announcements have been received in Wilmington of the programmes for the various meetings and conferences to be held at the Southern Methodist Assembly grounds at Lake Junaluska near Waynesville and there will likely be a number of people from this city who will attend the gatherings.

For three years these grounds have been open and each succeeding season has been better than the previous one. The programmes are the chief attractions for many, but the very fine grounds, with facilities for all forms of sports such as tennis, baseball, hand ball, basketball, croquet, mountain climbing, boating, swimming and such like, make Lake Junaluska attractive for many who are only looking for a congenial place to stay. The lake is now equipped with boats and a regular steamer accomdating one hundred and fifty passengers plies between the station and the Assembly grounds proper. The lake covers over two hundred and fifty acres and is surrounded by sixteen miles of graded roadway.

The first conference to be held this year is the Missionary Conference which begins July 9, and continues for ten days. There will be public addresses, moving pictures showing scens in the mission fields, study classes, institutes, devotional periods and other features to make this a great meeting. Among the speakers will be Bishop J. W. Bashford, M. E. Bishop of China; Dr. S. H. Wainwright, of Japan; Dr. W. J. Young, of Emory University; Miss Belle H. Bennett; Bishop James Atkins and Drs. Ed F. Cook W. B. Haylor and W. B. Beauchamp.

Perhaps the meeting of most general interest to many in North Carolina will be the great gathering of Sunday School workers from all over the South. The programme for this year is usually well arranged and promises to attract many both of the Methodist Church and other denominations.

Beginning July 22 and continuing through August 6, there will be a fine offering of Sunday School topics. The first three days the General Sunday School Board will be in session. North Carolina Methodist has three members of this Board, a larger number than any other state; President W. P. Few and Mr. W. B. Cooper, of Wilmington are members and Bishop James Atkins, of Waynesville, is the Chairman of the Board.

Following the meeting of the General Board will be a Conference of the Chairmen of Sunday School Boards and Field Secretaries. Mr. W. B. Cooper of Wilmington, Rev. C. W. Byrd of Greensboro, and Mr. M. W. Brabham of Durham, will be in attendance upon this meeting.

Beginning July 29, the meting for Sunday School workers will begin in the open sessions. Work of interest to every department of the Sunday School will be considered from day to day under expert leadership. Organized Bible classes will have a very prominent part each day; elementary work under the leadership of Mrs. H. H. Hamill, of Nashville, Tenn., will be given a study period for seven days; the work of the superintendent, of the other officers, of Home Department and Cradle Roll workers, will have choice places during the week. In addition to this work on special phases, strong preachers will deliver lectures on vital topics, Chautauqua numbers will be given, inspirational addresses will be made and withal a great Sunday School program will be offered.

Among the speakers for this meeting will be: Rev. E. B. Chappell, Sunday School Editor; Rev. F. M. Thomas, of Dallas, Texas; Mr. J. H. Way, of Memphis; Mrs. H. H. Hamil, Rev. C. D. Bulla, Mr. E. E. French, Rev. L. F. Beaty, Dr. E. H. Rawlings, all of Nashville; Miss Elizabeth Kilpatrick, of Mississippi; Rev. Emmett Hightower, of Texas; Dr. R. H. Bennett, of Emory University, Rev. F. J. Prettyman and Mr. M. W. Bradham, Field Secretary of the North Carolina Conference.

Other conferences will follow at close intervals; in fact there will be a continuous series of Conferences from July 9 to September 1.

TWO WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.—"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headache.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she did and feels fine now."—Mrs. M. R. KARSCHNICK, 1438 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Safety+Quickness

"Safety First" must ever be the watchword in firearms. But safety must not be secured at the expense of quick action. The Colt Automatic Pistol combines the most dependable kind of safety—automatic safety—with instant firing.

The Colt can't be discharged accidentally, because the trigger must be pulled and the safety in the grip must be pressed in all the same instant and this can't be done except it is done purposely. So much for safety.

As for quickness, the Colt always gets there first, for in an emergency you don't have to bother with or think about the grip safety—it takes care of itself and you.

Messrs. Dick McCarty, Robert and George Forester, went fishing yesterday from the Seashore hotel and returned with a nice catch.

Miss Illaweese McCausland, of Charlotte, is a guest at the Seashore hotel. Her sister, Miss Mary McCausland, is expected to arrive soon to join her and her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Jack left yesterday for their home in Augusta, Ga., after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Barrett at their cottage on the beach.

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer: "Mr. Carey J. Hunter, Miss Margaret Hunter and Ethel Marshall are back from Wrightsville Beach, where they attended the Baptist Seaside Chautauqua."

Arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday included Harry Morris, Cleveland; W. Caper Betts, West Neck; Y. W. Brittin, Norfolk, Va.; H. J. Pogue, Petersburg, Va.; John A. Oates and Miss Laura Oates, Fayetteville; DeLeon Herring, Boston, Mass.

"The Ambition of the Baron," heads the bill for tonight's moving picture show at Lumina. This is a thrilling and picturesque photo-drama in two parts in which Francis Bushman and Miss Beverly Bayne appear. The other picture is a one-part Edison comedy called "In the Plumber's Grip."

Seashore Hotel arrivals yesterday included Messrs. W. W. Simms, Geo. W. Simms and R. B. Simpson, Wilson; J. H. Herring, Savannah, Ga.; W. R. Jones, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. O. L. Clark, Clarkton; G. C. Green, T. T. Hyde, Jr., and J. H. Staples, Charleston; J. W. Pickett, Montgomery, Ala.; A. F. Freeman, Bladenboro; Mrs. Charles A. Forrest, Atlanta; Jean Daughty, Mrs. D. Tyce, Margaret Addison, C. F. Ferris, Jr., and Miss Julia Barrett, Augusta, Ga.; and John T. Griffith, Monroe.

The morning dances at Lumina, which proved to be such a popular feature, will be revived again. The first one will be given today from 11:30 until 1 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Don Richardson's orchestra.

The latest arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel are Wm. A. Monahan, of Baltimore; F. B. Monahan, Chicago; Wm. Wall, Wilson; E. A. Smith, Richmond, Va., J. W. Fielder, Atlanta; Paul Vaiser, Charlotte; H. L. Ruff, Seattle Wash Frank McNally, Chattanooga, Tenn., E. S. Ritzer, Atlanta.

Misses Annie and Eloise Anderson, of Augusta, Ga., arrived last night to spend several weeks at the Seashore Hotel. They have been visitors here before and were very popular. They are the daughters of Mr. A. W. Anderson, an Atlanta Coast Line official, who resided in Wilmington several years ago.

Master George Forester, the little four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Forester, of Atlanta, and little Miss Erskine Jarnigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jarnigan, entertained the guests at the Seashore Hotel Monday night with a fancy dance given in the lobby.

"Hearts in Exile," the photo drama, which was presented at Lumina last night, greatly pleased the large number of people present and made a distinct hit. The singing of Peter J. Smith, "The man with a voice," was another big feature. These attractions and the music by Richardson's orchestra furnished plenty of entertainment for all.

The Philharmonic Orchestra, of Philadelphia, which completed its engagement at Lumina Monday night, after finishing the music for the evening, paraded down the board walk, playing merrily, to the Seashore Hotel, where a midnight concert was given. The members of the organization were most accommodating during their stay at the beach and made many friends who regretted that they were to leave so soon.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas returned home Sunday night from Wrightsville Beach where Mrs. Thomas spent three weeks or more.——Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Mayer and Master Walter Brem Mayer have returned home from a week's stay at Wrightsville Beach.——Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Simmons have returned home from Wrightsville Beach. Their little daughter, Suzanne Simmons, remained a few days longer with her grandparents, Dr. C. L. Alexander and Mrs. Alexander."

The Don Richardson orchestra began its engagement at Lumina by playing for the dance last night and met with a most enthusiastic reception. Mr. Richardson again demonstrated his ability as a director and the expectations of the patrons of Lumina who have looked forward to Richardson's return were fully realized. The work of the orchestra was greatly enjoyed by the large company of spectators as well as by the dancers. The Richardson orchestra will play at Lumina for the remainder of the season. The organization this year comprises eleven pieces, the instrumentation being about the same as last year.

WEATHER IS UNSETTLED

No Change in Temperature Expected —Seasonal Average

The weather man predicts showers today and generally unsettled weather, with light south winds. A moderate disturbance has been centered in the interior and has moved northeastwardly. Heavy rains have fallen in the Mississippi valley and on the gulf coast. The temperature is about the seasonal average and will only change slightly within the next day or two.

It can be noticed from a weather map that Wilmington is among the towns having a fine wind velocity, thus preventing hot weather seeming so oppressive.

SLATON SAYS PEOPLE OF GEORGIA APPROVED ACTION

He Expects to Resume Law Practice in Atlanta This Fall.

New York, June 29.—Former Governor John M. Slaton, of Georgia, declared in a statement here tonight "that the good people of Georgia," approved his action in commuting the death sentence of Leo M. Frank to a life term in the penitentiary. Only the mob caused him any trouble, he said. He added that time would show the right and wrong in the Frank case.

Mr. Slaton, who was accompanied by his wife, arrived here tonight. He will spend a few days in the Adirondacks and will leave next week for San Francisco. He expects to return to Atlanta September 1st.

"It is untrue that I was caused any serious inconvenience by the demonstrations in Atlanta," Mr. Slaton asserted. "I attended to my duties there as usual. I practiced law in Atlanta for 28 years before I became governor and I will practice there again next fall."

Washington, June 29—The Comptroller of the Currency today issued a call for the condition of all National banks at the close of business Wednesday, June 23rd.

ITCHING IRRITATION

Worst Form of Skin Trouble Quickly Relieved by Inexpensive Treatment.

When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting, greasy ointment. Try Hokara, a pure and simple cream, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so cleanly that it does not soil the linen.

Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft, white and beautiful is almost miraculous.

Not only do minor skin troubles like pimples, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., quickly disappear, but the worst ulcers or cases of salt rheum or eczema are cleansed and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that any one may try Hokara at small expense, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co.'s store is selling a liberal sized jar at 25c, and in addition guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it.

Youthful Negroes Follow Advice of "Jake" and "George", and Land in the City Prison

Herbert Evans and Fred Miller, both colored, were tried yesterday in Recorder Empie's court, charged with store breaking, and were bound over to Superior Court. They are now in jail in default of $200 bond. When brought to the stand the boys, having been caught red handed, were asked how they came to be in the store.

"Jake and George told us the store was open and there was plenty for us all," was the reply of the negroes. "They had been in and filled up."

The boys couldn't remember any other name to their advisers as to where to go to get a good load of goods. Jake and George were evidently older thieves and probably cleverer, because they secured theirs and got away. Nothing has been reported from the store as having been stolen by Jake and George, and the boys had only a few cigarettes and a few cents in change. They are probably now aware of the fact that it is not always good policy to follow the advice of Jake and George.

Unless some friend comes along and puts up the $200 dollars they will have several weeks to lie in jail, and at the end of that time will have to answer to a charge. They were caught inside the store behind the counter in Mr. W. P. Powell's store at the corner of Seventh and Ann streets by Policeman A. E. Munn and M. B. Hookett yesterday morning about 2 o'clock.

In the cases of James Johnson, Frank Cleave, Harris Stone and W. V. Pearsall, for operating autos without license, judgment was suspended without costs.

The W. W. Kimball Piano Company has brought suit in the Recorders court against E. H. Sneed and E. A. Herbert for breach of contract in the sale of a piano and will endeavor to get the piano returned or secure the payments due.

ANNIVERSARY OF INTEREST

Mr. H. J. Jones, Aged 94, Odd Fellow 71 Years, Grand Treasurer of Grand Lodge 60th Term.

An occasion of wide interest here and in other parts of the State will be the joint celebration of the 71st anniversary of the initiation of Mr. R. J. Jones into the Odd Fellows, and the 60th time he has been installed as Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, which will take place at the Odd Fellows' Hall on July 8th.

The celebration will be given by the four local lodges of Odd Fellows of the city and Letitia Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah.

Mr. Jones is a member of Cape Fear Lodge, No. 2. William L. Smith, Esq., is chairman of the joint committee on arrangements, and Mr. J. F. Littleton is secretary.

During the celebration Mr. Jones will again be installed as Grand Treasurer. The exercises will open with an ode, all present standing. Prayer will be said by Rev. W. R. Noe, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, after which the Acme quartette will render a selection. Grand Master T. L. Smith, of Waynesville, will deliver an address and his introduction will be made by Mr. M. W. Jacobi, of this city.

Chautauqua to be Permanent.

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer: "Judge J. M. Broughton returned yesterday from Wrightsville Beach, where he attended the Baptist Seaside Chautauqua and he said that it was quite certain that the chautauqua would be made a permanent one at Wrightsville Beach as the Tidewater Power Company would build an auditorium there. Some speakers for next year's chautauqua have already been secured. Judge Broughton went as the representative of the Tabernacle Baptist church."

TO REPEAT CHORAL CONCERT

Chorus Which Sang at Baptist Chautauqua to Give Performance for Benefit of Associated Charities.

The Choral Concert, given by a chorus of 40 talented local singers under the direction of Mr. W. G. Robertson at the Baptist Seaside Chautauqua at Wrightsville Beach last week, will be repeated at the Victoria Theatre on Friday evening, July 9th, for the benefit of the Associated Charities. In addition to furnishing the means for providing for a handsome donation to a worthy cause, this concert will also afford much real pleasure to hundreds of Wilmington people, who were unable to go to the beach to hear the concert last week.

It has been decided to charge popular prices for admission in order to allow as many people as possible to attend and the admission prices will be only 15 and 25 cents. The concert will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

The concert at the Chautauqua last week was one of the big attractions and it is doubtful if there were any on the programme, which was a notable one for excellence, that was more enjoyed or received more enthusiastic praise from the audience.

The chorus will have a rehearsal at the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday evening, july 8th. Those composing the chorus which was trained by Mr. Robertson are as follows:

Sopranos—Mesdames Boylan, Green, Price, Robertson, Thompson, Waring, Yates; Misses Bowen, Keith, Post, Riley, White, Catherine Williams and Lila Williams.

Altos—Mesdames Edwards, Fenley, Muse, Taylor; Misses Bowen and Crumb.

Tenors—Messrs. Dosher, Dushan, Fenley, Gaddis, Hardison, Lomas, Pratt, Schulken, Southerland and Williford.

Basses—Messrs. Christie, Fenley, Harrell, Harris, Haskett, Jones, McCall, Muse, O'Keef, Thompson and Tremaine.

Fiftieth Series This Week.

The Mechanics Home Association will open its 50th series on Saturday, July 3rd, and it is expected that there will be a big demand for stock in this old and reliable building and loan association. Mr. W. M. Cumming is secretary and Col. Walker Taylor is president. The headquarters of the association are at Mr. Cumming's office on Princess street.

STRIKES GIRL WITH AUTO

J. L. Barfoot Apparently Lost Control of His Machine

Apparently losing control of his machine at the corner of Ninth and Market street yesterday when he turned aside to pass a street sweeper, Mr. J. L. Barfoot ran into little Miss Ouida Mae Pate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pate, who are spending the summer at Carolina beach, bruising her face, breaking a cartilage in her nose and scratching her hands.

The specialist who was called says the wounds are not likely to prove serious. Little Miss Pate was in city for the purpose of taking a music lesson and started across Market street at Ninth when the machine struck her. Her mother has come to the city to be with her at the home of Mrs. E. P. Fearington, No. 511 Dock street. When the little girl recovers they will return to summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Pate. Friends will be glad to know that the little girl was reported as getting along fine.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

EARLY RISE IN COTTON LOST

Renewed Covering at Start Promoted by Liverpool Firmness—Bullish Crop and Weather Advices.

New York, June 29. — Early advances were lost in the cotton market today with the close barely steady, barely 3 higher to 1 point lower. There was renewed covering at the start, which was promoted by firmness in Liverpool, continued large English spot sales, and the more bullish average of crop and weather advices. The market opened firm, at an advance of 3 to 8 points, and after some little irregularity sold about 10 to 13 points net higher. On the advance to 9.85 for October, or of practically 25 points from the low level of last week, however, the demand became less active and prices later eased off under realizing with the close at the lowest point of the day. Possibly the failure of the demand out on the more early advance, inspired some of the afternoon selling. The future market closed barely steady.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

New York, June 29. — Cotton seed oil was firm today, final prices showing a net advance of 6 to 16 points. The marked absence of offerings together with demand from nervous pit shorts and belief that the July position has been pretty well liquidated served to bring about the bulge. Sales, 6,700 barrels.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Early Gain Followed by Loss on All Months at the Close.

New Orleans, June 29.—Quiet but steady strength was shown by the cotton market in the early trading today and prices were sent to a net advance of 10 to 12 points. On the rise scalping longs were heavy profit takers and the offerings from them were finally more than the ring could absorb. Near the end of the session the market weakened and the distant months went to a slight net decline while all months lost practically all of the early gain. The close was barely steady net two points up to two points down.

The advance of the morning was based on good cables and heavy spot trading in Liverpool, too much rain in the belt especially in Oklahoma, continued reports of boll weevil damage in Texas and bullish forecasts of the coming reports on condition and acreage.

Cotton futures closing: July 9.14; October 9.55; December 9.76; January 9.86; March 10.07.

Spot firm, unchanged; middling 9.00; sales on the spot 190 bales; to arrive 700.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, June 27. — Forty-inch osnaburgs were in good demand by the bag trade today, and a fair amount of Southern ginghams was bought by cutters for the next spring season. Cotton yarns, dull and irregular. Several lines of men's wear were opened for the next Spring season. Mohair filled goods ranged from par to 2½ cents above last year.

STOCKS WERE HELD IN CHECK

Demoralization in Foreign Exchange Was Feature—Securities Generally Heavy or Irregular.

New York, June 29.—Recurrent demoralization in foreign exchange was the salient feature of today's financial developments and more than anything else served to hold the stock market in check. Further depreciation occurred in remittances to three of Europe's leading capitals. These quotations were not only the lowest reported since the outbreak of the war, but established records for many years previous.

With few exceptions securities were heavy or irregular throughout the weakness in Canadian Pacific, United States Rubber and several other active issues conducing to that end.

There were material gains in coppers, war shares and motors, but the movement in these issues was plainly of professional origin and failed to carry conviction.

There was further heavy selling of American bonds for European account at more or less substantial recessions. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,-145,000. United States bonds unchanged on call.

LOST HOUSEHOLD GOODS, TOO.

Contents Burned With Residence of Mr. J. B. Winders, Parkersburg.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., June 29.—Later authentic accounts of the fire near Parkersburg last week state that Mr. J. B. Winders lost not only his residence, but everything in it. Mr. Winders was absent from home at the time, and there was no one there but his mother, Mrs. Jane Winders, and niece, Miss Johnnie Winders, besides a colored servant.

In attempting to save a few household articles and some trunks containing clothing, Mrs. Winders was painfully, though not seriously, burned on the face and feet.

Pittsburg, June 29.—Rain interfered with play in the third day's programme of Clay court tennis championships this afternoon. The men's singles had reached the sixth round when Referee Julian S. Myrick stopped the play. All the preliminaries in the women's singles were put through and 12 matches in the first round as well as two in the second round.

New York, June 29.—Jeremiah O'Donovan, better known as O'Donovan Rossa, Irish patriot and revolutionist, died in St. Vincent's hospital, Staten Island, late today. He had been ill for many months.

GOT "EXAM" PAPERS THROUGH THE MAILS

Midshipman Moss Witness Before Navy Court of Inquiry

Stated He Didn't Know Papers Were Advance Copies of Examinations —Witnesses Testify in Behalf of Nelson

Annapolis, Md., June 29.—Midshipman James E. Moss, of the former third class at the United States Naval Academy, whose distribution of information contained in papers he claimed to have received from an anonymous source and which the academy authorities charge were stolen examination papers, led to Superintendent Fullam's recommendation that Moss and six other midshipmen be dismissed, was a witness today before the court of inquiry investigating the matter.

Moss said he received five papers relating to the subjects of Spanish and French in a plain envelope which had been dropped in a mail box at the Academy and delivered to him. He did not suspect they were examinations to be given, he said, but thought they might have been sent by some friend with the idea that they would be helpful.

Moss said no midshipman who had seen the papers gave him any intimation that he thought they were advance copies of examinations. However, in response to a question by the Judge-Advocate, the witness said the papers appeared to be examinations, and so far as he knew were not old examinations.

On one occasion Moss declared past examinations in mathematics with the problems worked out for him had been sent to him by Instructor King, of thedepartment of mathematics. The witness said his father, Robert Moss, of Counselor for the defendant midshipmen, recently had received from King an affidavit setting forth that the instructor had mailed such examinations to the midshipman. An envelope was put in evidence which Moss said was addressed in Instructor King's handwriting and had contained the mathematics papers.

GENERAL ANGELES SAYS HE DESIRES PEACE IN MEXICO

and the other nations of the world can accept and recognize."

Shown a dispatch from Cornish, N. H., that Col. Jesus M. Aguilar and Maj. Yrenco A. Garcia had arrived there seeking to arrange an audience for Angeles with the President, the Villa general said he would be glad to meet Mr. Wilson, although he was not urging an audience.

"Colonel Aguilar and Major Garcia," said the general through his interpreter, "are both representing General Raoul Madero. They do not represent me. They came to the United States as emissaries of Madero and called on me in Boston."

"Could you state more specifically the nature of your mission for General Villa?" he was asked.

"I can only say that I am on a special mission to the United States and a political mission to Sonora which I shall undertake as soon as I leave this country. After my work in Sonora is concluded, I shall report to General Villa."

The general said he would remain in Washington several days.

JOSE ZOZAYA ARRESTED

Charges Against Him Similar to Those Against Huerta and Orozco

El Paso, Texas, June 29.—Jose Zozaya, a wealthy El Paso resident was arrested today on charge of conspiring to set on foot a military expedition against a friendly country. He was released on $7,500 bond for hearing Thursday. The charges against him are similar to those made against Victoriana Huerta and Pascual Orazco. Additional specific accusations include the alleged purchase of five machine guns, five hundred rifles and a quantity of ammunition.

General Huerta continued his conferences with former Mexican generals today. Among those called were Salvator Matercade, Pasqual Orozco, Marcello Caraveo, Joaquin Telez, Francisco Castro, Manuel Acona, Eduardo Caus, Emilio Campa, C. Castro, Felix Ternazas, Luis Fernandez, and Manuel Landa.

FAIL TO GET INTERVIEW.

Angeles' Representatives Go to Cornish to Make Engagement.

Cornish, N. H., June 29.—An unsuccessful effort was made today to arrange an interview here between President Wilson and General Felipe Angeles, the Mexican leader who recently came to the United States and who wants to give the President his view of conditions in Mexico and to suggest a way of meeting Mr. Wilson's warning that the situation there must change.

Col. Jesus M. Aguilar and Maj. Yrenco A. Garcia, who said they were members, respectively, of the staff of Gen. Angeles and Gen. Raoul Madero, arrived bearing letters of introduction from General Madero and General Angeles, but were told that details of the Mexican situation were being handled by the State Department and that it would be impossible for General Angeles to see the President here.

The two Mexicans denied the report that General Angeles was connected with General Huerta in any movement to start another revolution in Mexico. They said that Angeles and Cilla still are warm friends.

According to Aguilar and Garcia both Generals Angeles and Villa favor Vasquez Tagle as provisional president. The Villa leaders are hopeful, they said, that Tagle can be agreed upon, and be recognized by the United States.

In this time of industrial opportunity, it is gratifying to see what a firm grasp the men trained at the Agricultural and Mechanical College are taking on the industrial life of the State. These men not only know how to do things, but they are doing them with credit to themselves and to their college. They are making over old farms and dairies. Many of them are directing cotton mills. On our railways and highways you find them with transit and rod. They are sought by men who need draughtsmen and machinists. Young men who are ambitious and determined to make headway in life are in increasing numbers making their way to this busy institution. The fall announcement in this paper will interest scores of young men.

DR. MEYER-GERHARD WRITES AN ARTICLE FOR BERLIN PAPER

standing under a hail of American shells which give the enemy the power to continue a war of destruction against Germany."

The Kreuz Zeitung says that it cannot admit Dr. Meyer-Gerhard's discrimination that only a small part of the population of the United States is responsible for the shipments, whereas a great majority is against them, and adds:

"What the American government and manufacturers of munitions do against Germany is done by America. The opposition of large circles in America does not change that fact till it meets with success."

The Kreuz Zeitung says that Dr. Meyer-Gerhard forgets one fact at which the Germans take offense in America's policy.

"America allows England to treat foodstuffs and raw materials as absolute contraband with the friendly intention of starving German women and children," says the paper. "Whatever protest America makes in England makes no change whatever in the fact that America is delivering these things to our enemies while keeping them from us, whether under compulsion or not."

NATURE OF NOTE UNDECIDED.

German Officials Say Nobody Knows What Lusitania Reply Will Be.

Berlin, via London, June 30.—Official circles in Berlin are authority for the statement that no intimation respecting the contents of the forthcoming German note in reply to the American note bearing on the sinking of the Lusitania has reached Washington since those engaged in drafting the document themselves have not determined its tenor yet.

The admiralty professes ignorance of its probable contents and nothing has been issued from that quarter. The foreign office is understood to be working on four different drafts and trying to select one that will reconcile the viewpoints of Germany and the United States.

The possibility that a satisfactory solution to the Lusitania problem might be reached was hinted at by an official of the foreign office, who recently declared:

"President Wilson's note showed that the matter could be adjusted. It was in the nature of a bridge across the trouble; our reply probably will be another girder strengthening that bridge."

The German note probably will be ready for transmission at the end of this week or early next week.

WARREN COUNTY SCHOOL CONTROVERSY IS SETTLED

W. E. Avery and Wife Fined For Having Trunk of Whiskey in Hotel

(Special Star Telegram)

Raleigh, N. C., June, 29.—The State Board of Education, in special session today, agreed on J. S. Davis as the member of the Warren county board of education instead of W. A. Graham, thus settling one of the bitterest factional fights that has been appealed to Raleigh in a great while.

This means that Howard F. Jones will be re-elected county superintendent for Warren public schools. Graham if appointed, would have supported another candidate for the superintendency.

Judge Harris, in the city court today, fined W. E. Avery, of Atlanta $100 and his wife $25 for registering at the Yarborough with a trunk full of whiskey and inducing bell boys to sell it for them. Two bell boys were fined.
